Jacob Rees-Mogg enfrenta una dura competencia en su circunscripción en las próximas elecciones del Reino Unido

El parlamentario conservador Jacob Rees-Mogg, conocido por sus trajes doblemente abotonados y sus camisas a rayas, se enfrenta a una dura competencia en su circunscripción de North East Somerset y Hanham en las próximas elecciones del Reino Unido.

Según una serie de encuestas, Rees-Mogg podría recibir entre el 25% y el 35% de los votos en la nueva circunscripción, mientras que su rival laborista, Dan Norris, quien es el alcalde de la región metropolitana del Oeste de Inglaterra, podría obtener entre el 40% y el 45%.

Divisiones en la comunidad local

Mientras que algunos ven a Rees-Mogg como un extranjero inglés encantador y cortés, otros en los pueblos unidos de Mendip, donde la familia Rees-Mogg tiene su residencia, están preocupados por sus puntos de vista de derecha.

Nikki Joseph, residente de East Harptree, critica la falta de respeto de Rees-Mogg hacia la humanidad y señala sus comentarios sobre las víctimas del incendio de Grenfell Tower en 2017, donde sugirió que no usaron su sentido común y desobedecieron las instrucciones de "quedarse en el lugar" emitidas por los servicios de bomberos.

Sin embargo, aún hay algunos en East Harptree que tienen afecto por Rees-Mogg. Viki Walker, quien recoge a uno de sus hijos de la guardería local, dice que conoce al parlamentario y que siempre ha sido amable y cortés con ella.

Sin embargo, no todos en la circunscripción están convencidos de votar por Rees-Mogg. Meg Lovell, una voluntaria que ayudó a salvar el pub local, el Waldegrave Arms, dice que no le gusta Rees-Mogg y que no muestra interés en la comunidad.

Opciones políticas en la circunscripción

Además de los principales partidos, Reform también está ganando votos en la circunscripción. Rich Rubino, propietario de dos negocios locales, dice que Reform es más conservador que los conservadores y que votará por ese partido en las próximas elecciones.

Mientras tanto, algunos jóvenes están considerando rechazar a tanto a los laboristas como a los conservadores y están buscando alternativas.

A pesar de la competencia, Rees-Mogg todavía cuenta con el apoyo de algunos residentes en West Harptree. Lesley Ward, cuyo hijo juega cricket con el hijo de Rees-Mogg, dice que el parlamentario la ayudó durante una disputa de planificación con el consejo local y que fue "absolutamente increíble".
